God of my past
God of my present and future
Unbounded by time
Unchanging forever and ever

Declare all Your glory and power
Let every voice
Sing of Your praises forever

As vast as the seas and the oceans
My heart in Your hands
The same hands that crafted the heavens

The Word at the start
You took the form of creation
Your mighty Name
Jesus Your Name is salvation

From the skies above
To the depths below
Every season and time

With all I am and all I have
I sing to You for all You've done
With everything I lift my
Hallelujah
While I have breath
While I have life
I'll sing until Your eyes meet mine
And even then I'll lift my
Hallelujah
While I have breath
While I have life
I'll sing until Your eyes meet mine
And even then I'll lift my
Hallelujah

From the mountains peak
To the valleys low
